Set in a transitioning historic city space each year, the PPS Winter Bash is more than an award-winning themed party attended by more than 500 invested citizens of all ages. The Bash, now in its 16th year, raises awareness of and critical funds for PPS's citywide advocacy work for historic preservation and thoughtful urban planning, creating a more vibrant Providence for all. Sponsorships are expected to sell out again this year; act quickly to align your company with the "Best of" and PPS's work toward a better city for all who live, work and visit here.
